 —Fresh eggs, chickens and butter always to be had at Colbert's Cash Grocery.

 D. W. Miller, the contractor, is finishing this week a very attractive six-room bungalow for W. T. Sanders, upon which he has been working the past three weeks. The papering is done and the house is ready for occupancy with the exception of a few trimmings. Every month sees the completion of a new house or two and if Hayti will continue we will soon have some town.

 —Oranges, apples, bananas and coconuts for Christmas; mixed candies, at Buckleys.

 Mrs. Elmer Hosea was noticed shopping in Caruthersville on Saturday.
